

Gold Camp Players Community Theatre performs:

“The Clocks” – A One-Act Play by Carl Larsen, directed by Diana Mathisrud

Recorder - Bobby Rock: Born and raised in the Great White North of...North Dakota. Yes, the land of "Uff Daas" "You Betchas" and Dontcha knows," but do not be deceived; there is not a hint of it within him other than that he truly enjoys COLD and SNOW. He spent most of his life behind the scenes and in front of a microphone creating "theater of the mind" as his career in radio began over 30 years ago. His first foray into theater happened right here on the HHOH stage back in 2011, in the Gold Camp Players production of THE NERD, where he portrayed the grumpy businessman Warnock Waldgrave. From there he auditioned for different parts in plays, but it wasn't until he moved to Cody, Wyoming in 2013 that he got the chance to get up on stage again and portray the cross-dressing Big Bad Wolf in the musical SHREK. As he says, "It's all just so much fun and it's a chance to make new friends in the theater world." Now living back in the Lead/Deadwood area, he looks forward to a few more auditions and making new friends. He has a passion for fly fishing and loves the "open air therapy" of snow skiing or riding his motorcycle.

Alpha - Micole Davis: After watching her husband and kids perform in multiple plays, Micole decided it was time for her to try it out. Reader's Theatre seemed the perfect fit after reading bedtime stories and chapter books aloud for the last 15 years. This is her first theater experience since high school and she is thoroughly enjoying it!

Beta - Chad Davis

chad m. davis

Gamma - Debbie Vardiman

I love living in Lead SD and being a part of the Historic Homestake Opera House. My husband, David works at the Sanford Underground Research Facility. We have 3 children and lovely families including our 7 grandchildren. I work part time at the Black Hills Mining Museum, and at the Hearst Library in Lead. I enjoy volunteering at the Black Hills Mining Museum working in their archives. I give all glory to Jesus my King. Thank you for coming. Enjoy the shows and performances.

Delta - Jon Steven Wiley

He last appeared on the Homestake Stage 45 years ago when he was the villain in "Only an Orphan Girl". Since then, Jon Steven went on to become part of the resident company of Conklin's Dinner Theatre in Central Illinois, eventually becoming a director under Ms. Mary Simon. After retiring and moving back to the Black Hills he has directed a variety of plays, including the 2015 HHOH Summer production of "Deadeye's Wild West". He is thrilled to be working with Diana again, a friend and acting partner dating back half a century. Time does march on.

Lead-Deadwood High School Speech & Debate performs:

Head Coach is Bree Oatman. Assistant Coach is Gwen Hess. Student Director is Daniel Egemo. Daniel is a junior and this is his 2nd year on the team. Daniel is an active member of the drama team. Daniel hopes to be future Governor of South Dakota or a US Congressman.

“Red” presented by Hunter Gudith. Hunter is a senior and is an active member of the drama team and joined speech and debate this year. He hopes to go on to study video game design.

“Superheros” A Duet presented by Braevely Davis and Megan Bernal. Braevely is a sophomore and this is his 2nd year in speech and debate. Braevely is also a member of the robotics club. Megan is a freshman and this is her second year on the team. She is also a member of band.

“Dancing with the Devil” presented by Alyssa Bernal. Alyssa is a 7th grader and this is her first year on the speech and debate team. Alyssa is also in band.

“Potato Creek Johnny” Storytelling by Zoe Frauen. Zoe is a senior and this her 5th year on the team. Zoe is also a member of band, choir, Key Club, National Honor Society and Student Council. She was also the 2017 South Dakota Boys and Girls Club Youth Representative. Zoe wants to go into education, non-profit, business or public administration and politics.

INTERMISSION – 10 MINUTES

Gold Camp Players Community Theatre performs

“A Pair of Lunatics”: A Dramatic Sketch by W.R. Walkes, performed by Lindsey Lothrop and Jamie Meyers.

Lead-Deadwood High School Speech & Debate performs:

“A Story Like Mine” Poetry by Kiale Rose. Kiale is a junior and this is her 2nd year on the team. Kiale is also involved in choir, Student Council, Key Club, and Prom committee. She is participating in One Acts competition this winter. Kiale is hoping to pursue a career in a medical field.

“Around the World in a Bad Mood” a Duet by Zoe Frauen and Emma Hess: Emma Hess is a junior and this is her 3rd year in speech and debate. Emma is in concert band and jazz band, Student Council, National Honor Society, Key Club, and Prom Committee. She also participated in the Fall play at LDHS. Emma wants to be a social worker.

“Rinse the Blood Off myToga” a Duet by Ryan Bourgo and Colin Kennedy Hyman: Ryan is a junior and this is his 3rd year on the team. Ryan is a member of art club and is in choir and band. Ryan wants to be an artist. Colin is sophomore and this is his 3rd year in speech and debate. Colin is a member of band.

“Mister Big” presented by Braevely Davis